

Young Women's World Forum 2010

19 October 2010- 24 October 2010 in Oxfordshire, United Kingdom

As part of the centenary celebrations, Girlguiding UK will be hosting the first Young Women's World Forum (YWWF) in cooperation with WAGGGS, from 19 to 24 October 2010. The forum will be discussing issues that are relevant to young women from across the globe and will focus on the Millennium Development Goals. The theme of the event will be "TOGETHER WE CAN CHANGE OUR WORLD".

You will be able to meet young women from 145 countries and you will have the opportunity to share your guiding and scouting experiences with them.

All WAGGGS Member Organizations are being invited to send two delegates to the YWWF, who are:

- Young women aged 18-25 (at least 18 by 1 October 2010 and still under 26 years old on 31 October 2010).
- Active members of their organization, but do not need to have attended any previous WAGGGS events.
- Very good French, English or Spanish speakers in order to be able to contribute and benefit fully from the Forum.
- Committed to running projects or programmes as a follow-up to the Forum.

The Swiss Guide and Scout Movement (MSdS / PBS) is looking for a delegate who meets the criteria above and is interested to be part of this unique experience! The cost for participation will be covered by funds.

If you want to attend the YWWF and meet the above criteria or if you have any further questions please contact Aline Germann v/o Tinka, the International Commissioner of the Swiss Guide and Scout Movement with an E-Mail to aline.germann@pbs.ch, before the 1 January 2010 to find out how you can become a delegate.
